

CONGREGATION B'NAI ISRAEL

Dear B'Nai Israel Family,

One of the most important fund-raising efforts at CBI is our annual Honor, Celebrate and Remember Book. The Book, which is published in conjunction with the High Holidays, is a perfect opportunity to express our love and appreciation for family, friends, fellow congregants, educators, clergy and our administrative staff. Additionally, the Honor, Celebrate and Remember Book offers us a way to memorialize and recognize departed family or friends who gave us so much joy and love during their lifetime.

For the 2018 High Holidays, we have made many positive improvements to the Book, from streamlined participation forms to a more environmentally conscious distribution method. And most importantly, we have established a flat cost for participation of just $54 per family, billable to your CBI account, allowing everyone the flexibility to honor, celebrate and remember all the important people in your lives.

In the near future, CBI will be sending out the new streamlined participation forms via email and we have conveniently included one on the reverse side of this letter. You will find the form much simpler to fill out and easier to submit. You can also find the form on our website www.bisrael.com.

Our goal in revamping the format and pricing for the 2018 Book is to achieve as close to 100% participation from our CBI congregants as possible. I'm urging all of our wonderful CBI Community to join us in the Mitzvah of honoring, celebrating and remembering family and friends while helping our Shul raise important funds for our day to day operations.

Thanking all of you in advance and with sincere appreciation,

Barry Bluestein
