

JEWISH NATIONAL FUND COMMUNITY BREAKFAST

SUNDAY

NOVEMBER
16
2014

9:30 AM - Registration

10:00 AM - Program

Temple Emanu-El

180 Piermont Road • Closter, NJ

Hosted by: Rabbi David Seth Kirshner and Rabbi Alex Freedman, Temple Emanu-El
Rabbi Jordan Millstein, Temple Sinai of Bergen County
Rabbi Debra Orenstein, Congregation B'nai Israel
Rabbi Craig Scheff, Orangetown Jewish Center
Rabbi David Widzer, Temple Beth El of Northern Valley

GUEST SPEAKER: AMIR SAGIE

Deputy Consul General - Consulate General of Israel in New York

As Deputy Consul General in New York, Israel's largest mission in the world, Consul Sagie coordinates the political work of the Consulate in the tri-state area, developing relations with national, state and local officials. He maintains regular contact with experts involved in major foreign policy and strategic issues at think tanks and universities across the region. He also acts as the liaison for the Foreign Ministry with the national and local leadership of the Jewish Community based in New York. In addition, he coordinates interfaith dialogue and outreach nationally for the Foreign Ministry and its missions in the US.

Breakfast Co-chairs: Martin Kasdan, Ruth & Bruce Pomerantz, Seth Schwinger

No cost to attend • Dietary laws observed

Please register at jnf.org/closterbreakfast

For more information, contact Jocelyn Inglis at jinglis@jnf.org or 973.593.0095 x823.

jnf.org •

JEWISH NATIONAL FUND

Your Voice in Israel