

CONGREGATION B'NAI ISRAEL

Passover 2014

First Seder is Monday, April 14
Second Seder is Tuesday, April 15

Join us for the many activities at CBI celebrating Passover:

Friday, April 4, 7:30 pm, special erev Shabbat service featuring the Baer Family who will speak on "Freeing Slaves Today" -- to inspire and motivate us before Passover.

Sunday, April 6

9:45 am, Passover Haggadah Refresher – just in time for the Seder, brush up on your Hebrew reading (RSVP to office with level of your Hebrew).

10:30 am, "Pesach Workshop" for the Hebrew school students, including a Chocolate Seder.

2:30 pm, USY Chocolate Seder for high school students (grades 9-12).

Monday, April 14, 7:30 am, Siyum service Parents are encouraged to bring their first-born children for this special service celebrating Jewish learning; at the conclusion, all first born may break their fast.

Monday, April 14, and Tuesday, April 15, we would like to "match" those who offer seats at their Seder tables with those who seek a place to celebrate the holiday on either the first night or the second night.

Saturday, April 19, 10:00 am, Inter-Generational Learning Service to honor the Passover Holiday, as well as the Sabbath. We will focus on prayers that explore the themes of Exodus, freedom, and redemption. Rabbi Orenstein will lead a participatory discussion on the Passover holiday and field questions.

Tuesday, April 22, 7:30 am Yizkor service to remember loved ones who have died.

All programs are at Congregation B'nai Israel. For more information contact either the Ritual Committee (ritual.chair@bisrael.com) or the CBI office at office@bisrael.com or 201-265-2272.
