

PHOTO COURTESY OF CONGREGATION B'NAI ISRAEL

'Chocolate Seder'

The United Synagogue Youth group at Congregation B'nai Israel in Emerson, recently enjoyed a pre-Passover celebration that included a 'Chocolate Seder.' After the temple's rabbi, Debra Orenstein reflected on the Passover experience, teens read from a special Haggadah to retell the Jewish people's Exodus from Egypt and substituted chocolate items for traditional one. The group is a collaboration of teens from Temple Israel in Ridgewood, Temple Beth Shalom in Fair lawn, the Fair Lawn Jewish Center and Congregation B'nai Israel.