Of and To: A Poem in Honor of Tu B'Shevat

Seventh-graders in the Hey class of the Hebrew school of Cong. B'nai Israel in Emerson wrote the following poem.

A tree reminds me of an ecosystem.

A tree reminds me to climb trees.

A tree reminds me of Life.

A tree reminds me to relax and look.

A tree reminds me of Creation.

A tree reminds me to eat yummy fruit.

A tree reminds me of biology class and cellular respiration.

A tree reminds me to breathe.
